Race Etiquette

1. Do not constantly run or walk in the centre forcing others to run round you.
2. Do not run or walk two or more abreast.
3. Allow yourself to be passed by faster competitors.
4. Do not pass someone then slow down in front of them.
5. Do not stop suddenly, more to one side first.
6. When approaching the water table or crew table do not stop at it impeding another competitor's path.
7. On collecting a drink from the water table & you want to walk while drinking, step to one side.
8. On the hour when changing direction at the back mats be aware of approaching competitors.
9. Stay alert of who is around you.
10. Remember relay runners are travelling faster than you, give them room.
11. Do not clip the heel of any faster runner
12. Keep any ear piece down low so you hear others approaching & all announcements.
13. Good sportsmanship is always recognised. Bad sportsmanship is not tolerated
